We invite you to participate in an intimate 3-day workshop led by noted pianist, author, and lecturer Paul Roberts. This workshop is intended for piano enthusiasts of any age, 18 and older. No audition is required.

The workshop will include lessons, master classes, a lecture, and a concert by Paul Roberts. Participants will give a concert on the last day. Gourmet meals and healthy snacks will be provided, including happy hour each day.

Reviews from previous Paul Roberts Workshops:

“...a wonderful musical and social experience.”

“I enjoyed every minute of it with profound learning about music... not only from Paul, but also from every participant...”

Participants may bring whatever repertoire they wish; however, one piece should be of sufficient standard to play through to the group.

The workshop will take place at a private residence in Corvallis, Oregon. This home has a beautifully restored 1910 Steinway grand piano. Excellent digital keyboards will be provided by Portland Piano for participants' use.

If you live outside the area, a short list of hotels and B&Bs can be provided. Or if you prefer, we'd be happy to arrange a homestay for you.
