PAUL ROBERTS PIANO WORKSHOP

October 12-14, 2018
Corvallis, Oregon

We invite you to participate in an intimate 3-day workshop led by Paul Roberts – noted pianist, author, and lecturer. This workshop is intended for amateur and professional pianists, 18 years and older, playing upper intermediate to advanced level repertoire. No audition is required.

The workshop will include lessons, master classes, a lecture and a concert by Paul Roberts. Participants will give a concert on the last day. Gourmet meals and snacks will be provided, including happy hour each day.

Reviews from COPI's previous Paul Roberts Workshop:

"Paul's insights, his encouraging help, his knowledge and his pianistic skills added up to superb teaching. His abilities are truly world class."

"...a rich experience because of the opportunity to meet like-minded people and to hear wonderful repertoire."

Participants may bring whatever repertoire they wish; however, one piece should be ready to perform for the group. In recognition of the 100th anniversary of Debussy's death, participants are encouraged (but not required) to prepare one or more of the Debussy Preludes.

The workshop will take place at a private residence in Corvallis, Oregon. This home has a beautifully restored 1910 Steinway grand piano. Excellent digital pianos will be provided by Portland Piano Company for practice sessions.

If you live outside the area, a short list of hotels and B&Bs can be provided. Or if you prefer, we'd be happy to arrange a homestay for you.
